St. Bartholomew/Holy Rosary Partnership

St. Bartholomew and Holy Rosary/Santo Rosario, in the Phillips neighborhood of Minneapolis, established a partnership in 1997.

The partnership was founded on the principles of creating community, respecting distinct cultures, and fostering justice in the larger community.

Founded in 1878, Holy Rosary was once primarily an Irish-American parish. Its membership has changed with the times and the neighborhood, so that today the majority of parishioners are of Hispanic descent.

Through the efforts and coordination of the Partnership, St. Bart's has offered vital help to Holy Rosary parish members and the Phillips neighborhood. A partial list of the programs the Partnership has been involved in establishing include:

- Spanish Mass at Holy Rosary involving St. Bart's School children
- BWCA trip with youth from both parishes
- A computer lab at Holy Rosary where parishioners of all ages can hone their skills
- A coat/blanket drive to keep Phillips children and adults warm in the winter
- Volunteer teachers for English as a Second Language (ESL) classes
- St. Bart's parishioners volunteering their time at Holy Rosary's spring and fall festivals
- Financial support from St. Bartholomew Catholic Faith Community
